He also served as interim U.S. Attorney between April and August of 2001. “I look forward to working with residents to pro-actively address issues of crime and quality of life in communities across the city,” said Mr. Wainstein. “We will continue to focus on the prosecution of violent criminals and others who threaten the peace and safety of our neighborhoods.”

The COURT REPORT

Daniel Barnes was sentenced to 37 years imprisonment for kidnapping and raping two teenage girls. (Case No. F-4609-03)

FACTS: On May 14, 2004, Daniel Barnes, 29, formerly of the 600 block of Milwaukee Place, S.E., was sentenced to 37 years imprisonment, followed by five years of supervised release by Superior Court Judge Ann O'Reagan Keary, for his role in the kidnapping and raping of two teenage girls, ages 14 and 16- years- old. Barnes pled guilty in December 2003, to one count of first degree child sexual abuse, one count of first-degree sexual abuse while armed, and one count of kidnapping. Barnes will also be required to register as a sex offender for life.

According to the government's evidence, on April 21, 2003, a 14-year-old girl was walking in the 3300 block of Minnesota Ave., S.E., with a friend, when the defendant came out of a wooded area on the side of the street and approached them. They started to run. The friend ran faster and got away. The defendant, who was wearing a black mask, grabbed the 14-year-old and forced her into the woods. Once inside the wooded area, the defendant told the complainant to remove her clothes. The complainant started to take off her jacket, but the defendant told her not to and took her out of the woods. He then forced her into a burgundy four-door car parked across the street.

The defendant next drove down a side street and parked. He ordered her to remove her clothes, but grew impatient with the time it was taking for the complainant to remove them. He then took off her pants, pulled the complainant down across the front seat, and had forcible sex with her. DNA analysis and examination confirmed that the defendant was the source of the DNA recovered from the complainant.

Thereafter, on August 1, 2003, a 16-year-old girl was walking along Elmira Street, S.W., when the defendant, who was wearing a ski mask, a black pea coat and black gloves, approached her from behind. He grabbed the girl by the neck and took her toward the rear of a building located at #8 Elmira Street. Once behind the building, the defendant told the complainant to take off her clothes, to put her hands against the wall, and to bend over. The defendant then had forcible sex with the complainant. After raping the complainant, the defendant told her to leave the area, and she did so; the defendant also left the rear of the building.

Meanwhile, an eyewitness, who observed the defendant putting on a mask and abducting the 16-year-old complainant, contacted the Metropolitan Police Department and directed them to the defendant. The defendant was stopped and the complainant was brought back to the scene, where she positively identified Barnes by build and clothing as her assailant. The eyewitness also identified the defendant. Police officers observed a black pea coat in the car. The ski mask, gloves, and a knife were also recovered.

Assistant United States Attorneys Carolyn Becker-Hromalik and Sharon Marcus-Kurn prosecuted the case.

Local tax preparer was ordered to repay $233,434 to the IRS for assisting the preparation of Income Tax Returns falsely claiming an illegal tax credit for slavery reparation. (Case No. 04-052)

FACTS: Rebecca Forsyth, 56, of the 4900 block of 16th Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced by U.S. District Judge John D. Bates to pay $233,435 in restitution to the IRS, complete 300 hours of community service, and report to the United States Probation Office for a period of five years. Forsyth faced a period of incarceration of 18 to 24 months, which was not imposed because the Court found Forsyth, a widow, to be the sole, irreplaceable caregiver for her son, who has Down Syndrome and is incapable of living independently. On February 19, 2004, Forsyth pled guilty to Assisting a False Statement to the IRS.

In pleading guilty, Forsyth admitted that she worked for two tax seasons of ten-weeks each as a tax preparer for H & R Block. Since that time, she has prepared income tax returns for some of her acquaintances and received some payments for her work on an irregular basis. For tax years 1999 and 2000, Forsyth prepared and filed Forms 1040, United States Individual Income Tax Returns, claiming an illegal tax credit for African-Americans in reparation for slavery. Forsyth filed for the aforementioned credit on her own income tax return, as well as on the income tax returns she prepared for others who resided in the District of Columbia and elsewhere. Forsyth filed for the illegal tax credit using Form 2439, Notice to Shareholder of Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gains. This form is used legitimately by a regulated investment company or real estate investment trust to report taxes withheld by the company and paid over to the IRS. Forsyth completed the Form 2439 by listing the alleged regulated investment company as "Black Investment Taxes, Dept. of Treasury, Washington, D.C." or "Black Tax Refund, Dept. of Treasury, Washington, D.C." Forsyth claimed the tax credit in the amount of $43,209 for individual taxpayers and in the amount of $86,418 for married taxpayers filing joint tax returns. The names, address and social security numbers of the respective taxpayers were also indicated on the same form. The Forms 1040 were mailed with the corresponding Forms 2439 to the IRS.

For the majority of tax returns that she prepared, Forsyth signed the tax returns for the taxpayers and mailed the income tax returns directly to the IRS. Forsyth, however, did not sign the tax returns as the return preparer and specified that the tax returns were self-prepared. Forsyth was informed by some of those for whom she filed tax returns that the IRS had rejected their claims for the slavery reparation credit. Forsyth filed for the slavery reparation credit knowing there was no law or IRS regulation allowing for the credit. Through Forsyth's influence and assistance, eleven fraudulent federal income tax returns with total false claims of $561,717 were filed. The IRS disbursed $233,435 in fraudulent refunds, the amount Forsyth has been ordered to repay to the IRS.

Assistant United States Attorneys Thomas E. Zeno and Mary Ann Snow conducted the investigation and negotiated the plea in the case.

Tamisha “Naomi” Heyward pled guilty to running a child sex trafficking and Internet prostitution business out of a Northeast residence. (Case No. 04-205)

Tamisha “Naomi” Heyward, also known as Quilena Taylor, 27, pled guilty before U.S. District Judge Ellen S. Huvelle, in United States District Court for the District of Columbia, to three counts of Sex trafficking of Children and one count of possessing a firearm after a felony conviction. Heyward will face a sentence of approximately 10 to 12 years of incarceration under the terms of the plea agreement when she is sentenced on a date to be determined.

On April 23, 2004, Heyward and Gary Gates, also known as “Sweat,” 41, were indicted by a federal grand jury for running an illegal sex trafficking operation that involved the prostitution of girls as young as 14-years-old. Gates and Heyward, both formerly of 16th Street, N.E., were charged with conspiracy to commit sex trafficking of children and sex trafficking by force, transportation of minors for prostitution, and coercion and enticement of children to engage in prostitution, among other offenses.

During the plea hearing, Heyward admitted her involvement as the second-in-command from March 2001 through December 2003, in the interstate sex-trafficking business in which Gates, as the pimp, would recruit women to come live with him and Heyward for the purpose of having the women engage in prostitution. Gates would often travel from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore, Maryland, where he would prey upon girls as young as 14-years old and entice them to come to Washington, D.C. with him to work as prostitutes.

Heyward ran all the day-to-day affairs of the business, including maintaining the prostitutes in the house, training new recruits, making appointments with customers, arranging transportation for prostitutes to get to appointments, making sure the money was remitted to her and Gates, and psychologically exerting control over the prostitutes. Gates concentrated on recruitment, retention and enforcement, primarily using physical force, psychological coercion and sexual abuse to compel women to keep working for himself and Heyward. Gates viciously beat women who disobeyed or disappointed him and engaged in sexual acts with many of the women, including those under 16- years old.

Beginning on or about the summer of 2002, and continuing until December 18, 2003, Gates and Heyward moved much of their business from the streets to the internet, setting up a website called www.Redlightspecialinc.com” and later a second website called “www.pandorasboxinc.com,” each of which advertised “escort services” that were in reality commercial sex act services that sent prostitutes to customers located in Washington, D.C., Maryland and Virginia, who called by telephone or sent messages over the internet to make appointments for prostitution services. Gates and Heyward employed more than twenty women. During one eight-month period in late 2003, Heyward maintained a merchant account into which over $35,000 in proceeds was deposited. On December 18, 2003, law enforcement officers executed a search warrant at the residence of Gates and Heyward, at 1111 16th Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., during which they seized computers, numerous digital cameras, credit card machines, vehicles, receipts, hotel keys, condoms, and a semi-automatic pistol.

Assistant United States Attorneys Roy L. Austin and Jeanne M. Hauch, prosecuted the case.

Jeannette Green was sentenced to 12 years in prison for stabbing a man who attempted to break up a fight. (PSA 602; Case Number F-6221-01)

FACTS: Jeannette Green, 32, of the 300 block of 54th Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced in D.C. Superior Court before the Honorable Patricia A. Broderick to a term of twelve years in prison for her role in the stabbing death of Derrick Bell. Green pled guilty in March 2004, to voluntary manslaughter while armed.

According to the government's evidence, on October 2, 2001, Green became engaged in an argument with female neighbors. The argument spilled into the street, during which time Green ran back into her apartment and retrieved a butcher knife. Upon returning to the front of her apartment building on 54th Street, N.E., she again confronted her female neighbor. The decedent, Derrick Bell, attempted to break up the fight. While the decedent, who wasn't armed at the time, was attempting to do so, Green stabbed the decedent once in the chest. The decedent was taken to Prince George's County Hospital, where he died a short while later.

Assistant United States Attorneys Lisa Baskerville Greene, Ronald Dixon and Charles W. Cobb prosecuted the case.
